

RHODE ISLAND COALITION
FOR THE HOMELESS

COMMUNITY RESOURCE GUIDE

Dear Reader,

Thank you so much for opening this resource guide. We hope that you find it helpful and informative. We've tried to bring together community resources in a succinct and organized way. If anything is missing or incorrect, please reach out to let us know (contact info@rihomeless.org). As always, please also check our website (www.rihomeless.org) and social media for our latest news.

If you or someone you know is homeless, we encourage you to review the resources on our website or the latest "Street Sheets" (available at <https://www.rihomeless.org/looking-for-help>). We've not included that information here because it changes more frequently and our website is the best place to get up to date information. This document is intended to primarily share community resources and opportunities, as these mainstream supports are so important to obtaining and maintaining housing!

Various resources were utilized in the creation of this guide, including but not limited to: The United Way Elderly Resource Guide, The Health Homes Community Resource Guide (March 2018), The Rhode Island Rental Resource Guide, The Emergency Food Provider List (From The Rhode Island Community Food Bank), and the United Way Guide to Rhode Island Resources.

Thank you to them and for the generous support from our funders, donors, members, partners, interns, and staff who make our work possible! Lastly, I'd like to say a special thank you to Dee Dee Williams and Hannah Guarino who were particularly instrumental in the creation of this document!

Warmly,

Caitlin Frumerie, LCSW
Executive Director
Rhode Island Coalition for the Homeless
